

Longfellow's Wayside Inn's First Annual
Colonial Cider Festival
~ and Traditional Pig Roast ~

Friday, September 9, 2016, 6-9pm

An event celebrating America's most beloved beverage!

Everyone who called, from the minister to the tramp, was offered the common drink with the apology if it was very sour as it sometimes was in the spring "it is pretty hard," to which custom required the response, "it is harder where there is none."

Charles S. Hudson, 1889, History of Sudbury

Event Includes:

- ❖ Local craft hard cider brewers from Downeast Cider, Lookout Farms, Stormalong, Harpoon, and Angry Orchard providing ample sampling!
- ❖ Commemorative stoneware cider mug
- ❖ Tour Henry Ford's cider mill and apple/fruit storage cellar
- ❖ Apple press for pressing your own fresh cider
- ❖ Pig roast and BBQ food provided by FIREFLY'S
- ❖ Barn Dance with bluegrass music by the Sandy Ridge Boys
- ❖ Horse/carriage rides to gristmill

$65 - All proceeds go to support the restoration of the Wayside Inn cider mill

Sudbury, MA. This event will sell out; call (978) 443-1776 or see www.wayside.org for tickets & directions.